VOCAL MUSIC.

- As I'd nothing else to do.....J. L. Hatton. 30
*'Twas a pleasant summer's morning,
 Just the day I like to enjoy,
 When I woke and look'd out early
 Puzzl'd how my time I employ.
 In such fine and splendid weather,
 I don't care for work,—do you?
 So I went to see my sweet heart,
 As I'd nothing else to do.*

*I've just been learning the lesson of life,
 The sad, sad lesson of loving;
 And all of its powers for pleasure or pain
 Been slowly and sadly proving;
 And all that's left of the bright, bright dream,
 With its thousand brilliant phases,
 Is a handful of dust in a coffin lid,
 A coffin under the daisies,
 The beautiful, beautiful daisies.*
